

Your Soul

YOUR SOUL

As the diamond far out-values its setting and the "Old Master" its gilt frame, as the tenant is immeasurably more than his house, so your soul worth infinitely more than your body, the tent of clay, in which you are temporarily housed, and to which you are feebly linked by that frail cord, the breath in your nostrils. No wonder Jesus says, "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"(1)

The final message from Heaven to an earthly king who had forgotten God and lived for self was, "and the God in whose hand your breath is... have you not glorified."(2) Might not this be true of you?

Having ignored your Creator and Sustainer flouted His ownership, presumed on His resources, broken His laws, neglected His house, dishonoured His property, trampled on His love. despised His mercy and discredited His plan of salvation, may I remind you that there is a day coming when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ and every one of us will give account of himself to God.(3)

Thank God there is good news for you today. Jesus, the Son of God, who went to the gallows as your substitute, is alive and ready to forgive, cleanse, change and save you if you come TODAY.

The only response God respects is that you humbly admit your guilt, forsake your sins and in simple faith receive His grace and mercy through Christ Jesus, His beloved Son and your only Mediator.(4)

Your response is an immediate duty, for any delay demonstrates the unwillingness of your heart to be reconciled to God through the death of His Son.

No reformation is genuine without coming to Christ, neither is any preparation necessary, and none can be made.

Make your response now.

Repeat the following words of Charlotte Elliott:

"Just as I am, without one plea But that Thy blood was shed for me. And that Thou bidst me come to Thee O LAMB OF GOD – I come."

Marshall B Shallis

(1) Mark 8:36 (2) Dan 5:23 (3) Romans 14:12 (4) John 1:12, Acts 4:12, 1 Tim 2:5, 6.