This is Life ?

Like most young people I have a great desire to live LIFE to the full. In my search for satisfaction I have tried many things. I have gone the round of them all. I tried to persuade myself that this was Life! Finally, one Saturday afternoon, whilst sitting in the local café, I faced up to the fact that this Life just wasn't living.

My thoughts grew blacker with each passing moment. What do you do when everything has failed? Who do you turn to? I didn't know.

It was then that God stepped in. Into the café He sent a young church pastor who had taken a job, wiping tables and washing dishes, in order to speak to young people who were seeking the meaning of Life. On learning who and what he was, I asked him to talk to me. For the first time in my life someone spoke to me about Jesus Christ. I went home that evening with the pastor's words ringing in my ears, and hammering at my heart, "You need Jesus Christ."

A fortnight later I went to a church and listened to the Gospel for the first time in my life. I had never heard anything so wonderful before. Jesus Christ had actually died for me! The only time I had spoken His name up to then, I ashamed to say, was in blasphemy, and yet He loved me enough to die for me. The thing that amazed me then, and still amazes me now, is that He should love me so much.

So it there, in that little church that my search for Life ended, for there I found Jesus Christ, who had been waiting for me for so long, and in Him I found Life that is LIFE indeed.

If your Life is empty and meaningless it is because it is empty of Him, the Lord Jesus Christ, who said, "I am come that you might have Life and have it more abundantly."(1)

Will you, right now, invite Him into your heart and life?

Here is a prayer you can use to do this:

"O God, I admit I have failed to follow your plan for my life. I am willing to turn from my past, take Jesus Christ to be my personal Saviour and Lord, and I will follow Him and his teaching from now on. Amen."

Now you need to find a local church (the person who gave you this will be able to help you), and like me, start to learn more about Jesus.
