It has been estimated that over 8,000 peace treaties have been signed since the birth of Jesus Christ! Today's mixed up world is so desperate for peace that it will even wage war to preserve it!

But the peace we all so desperately crave is not the illusion of the calm of an armed truce, nor is it peace without regard to principles. Our need is for the "Peace of God" that the Bible speaks of¹. It is only when we allow God His correct place in our lives and hearts that we can enjoy this "perfect peace"². One of the titles given to Jesus Christ is "Prince of Peace"³ and He still says "My peace I give unto you."⁴

The moment that you truly acknowledge that you have failed to reach the standards that God has set (ie "sinned"), and recognise that handing your life over to Christ is the only way forward, that is when you will begin to receive this amazing gift of peace. You will find your new and right relationship with God the Father who promises "I will never leave you nor forsake you."⁵ Receive this gift right now, and "let the Peace of God rule in your heart"⁶ from today.
