

“Whoever believes in the Son
has eternal life;
whoever does not obey the Son
shall not see life,
but the wrath of God
remains on him.”

Where will you spend Eternity?

John Peddie

Life is full of choices and decisions.

We live in momentous times. Our fast-changing world is accelerating towards the destiny God has planned. For this reason you must make a decision about your eternal future.

2000 years ago Jesus came to die for the sins of the world, but each individual must make a proactive choice to accept or reject God's way of salvation: you must either accept or reject that Christ died on the cross for your own sins.

To do nothing is to reject God's salvation and will mean that your eternal destiny will be in hell and the lake of fire.¹

Meanwhile the Bible tells us that, in God's precise timing, notable events will unfold:

- Integration between the European nations will continue to evolve.²
- Born again Christians will suddenly disappear when Jesus comes and takes them to heaven.³
- A man whom the Bible calls “the Anti-Christ” and “the Beast”, will be given power to rule this world for seven years during which time there will be unparalleled suffering.⁴
- No-one will be able to buy or sell unless they take the mark of the beast.⁵
- After those seven years, Jesus will return to earth to reign as King of Kings for 1000 years.⁶

Why choose to go through the most terrible suffering there has ever been on this earth, and after that to end up in the lake of fire, when God has already provided the way of escape by sending Jesus to die for your sins on the cross?

God commands you to repent, turn away from your sins and place your trust in Jesus Christ for eternal salvation.

Will you accept Christ or reject Him? Your decision determines your eternal destiny.
